DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The Amendment filed on 09/02/2004 in response to the Office Action filed on June 4, 2004 is acknowledged and has been entered.

Claims 69-80 are currently pending and under consideration

Response to Declaration

The Declaration filed on 09/02/2004 in response to the Office Action filed on June 4, 2004 has been considered and is objected to for the following informalities:

On page 2 of the Declaration, the applicant states "Nasreen Aboul-Ela is listed as a co-author of the paper referred to in "2", but was not a con-inventor". The term "con-inventor" is confusing and unclear.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office Action.

Rejections Maintained:

Claims 67-80 remain rejected under 35 USC 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lin et al. in further view of Cambell, A..M. for the reasons of record in the Action mailed 06/04/2004 (pages 3-4).

Applicants have argued (Remarks, 09/02/2004) that the pending claims claim a priority date of May 1, 1998 and that Lin et al. was published less than one year prior to the priority date of May 2, 1997. Applicants further provide a declaration in accordance with In re Katz, 215 USPQ 14 (CCPA 1982) establishing that Nasreen Aboul-Ela was not and is not a co inventor in 1997, nor in

Art Unit: 1642

2000. Furthermore, Applicants argue that since Nasreen Aboul-Ela is not a co-inventor it would not have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the encoded PARG for the purpose of generating antibodies that specifically bind to the claimed peptides, because the protein was not described "by others". This argument has been considered but is not found persuasive, as the declaration is deemed defective for the reasons set forth above.

Thus, for the reasons of record and for the reasons set forth above, applicant's arguments have not been found persuasive and the rejection is maintained.

New Objections

The Specification is objected to for the following reasons: The Specification on page 1, line 3 should be amended to reflect the priority status of the present application, for example:

It is also a divisional of application Serial No. 09/302, 812, filed on April 30, 1999, now U.S. Patent No. 6,333,148.

Claim 71 is objected to because the claim appears to be missing a word after "hybridizes".

New Rejections

Claims 67-80 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. THIS IS A NEW MATTER REJECTION.

Claims 67-80 refers to an isolated antibody which binds specifically to a protein which catalyzes the release of ADP-ribose from an ADP ribose polymer. In the amendment filed on April 12/03/2003, the applicant cancelled claims 1-66 and added new claims 67-80. The specification and claims as originally filed does not lend support for the limitation of an isolated antibody that binds to a protein which catalyzes the release of ADP-ribose from an ADP ribose polymer. Although, the Applicant on page 4 of the Amendment believes that "Claims 67 et seq. Parallel claims allowed in U.S. Patent No. 6,337,2002", this statement does not appear to provide evidence that this functional limitation of the protein as claimed is present in the instant application Serial Number 09/973451 nor in its parent application 09/302, 812, now U.S. Patent No. 6,333,148.

Art Unit: 1642

Applicant is invited to point to clear support or specific examples of the claimed limitation in the specification as-filed or remove such amendatory language in response to this office action.

No claim is allowed.

All other rejections and or objections are withdrawn in view of applicant's amendments and arguments there to.
